School Personnel

This online video series discusses the legal and practical issues associated with making employment decisions in the school environment. Topics include:

- The role of the school board in employment decisions
- Differentiating the types of personnel
- Avoiding illegal discrimination and harassment
- Differentiating probationary and tenured teachers
- Terminating teachers
- Requirements for unrequested leave of absence

Board members and the superintendent may view the videos independently at any time or as a group. The entire series can be viewed in segments or in its entirety.

Registration is $75 for all 7 board members and the superintendent to have access for 90 days. Additional participants may be added for $10 each.

Complete the registration form below. Login credentials will be sent directly to each individual enrolled.
