Mission Statement

The mission of the Centralia R-VI School District is to prepare our students to compete by providing a safe, nurturing and challenging environment as we strive to develop them into extraordinary and productive citizens of our world. We are a data-driven, professional learning community focused on measurable goals, continuous improvement and the growth of each individual student.

Community Attributes

Centralia, a central Missouri rural community, is located midway between St. Louis and Kansas City and just 20 miles north of I-70 and Columbia. The community is within minutes of several institutions of higher learning, including the University of Missouri.

The city is home to more than 4,100 residents and more than 100 businesses including a variety of retail shops, professional services and manufacturing companies.

The parents and community members provide a strong influence on the educational programs. They are progressive, yet remain faithful to traditional values – instilling the importance of hard work and discipline.

Community Attributes

The District consists of five schools serving 1,372 students from 203 square miles. Students attend Chance Elementary (pk-2), Centralia Intermediate School (3-5), Chester Boren Middle School (6-8), Centralia High School (9-12) and Champion Academy (Alternative School).

Centralia Schools have made great strides in incorporating new technologies into the classrooms. From kindergarten through high school, students use computers to supplement their learning.

More than 80 percent of the middle school and high school students are involved in activities ranging from sports, student government and fine arts clubs to drug awareness programs and student-led organizations. These activities provide a natural learning environment for developing skills and habits that will endure for lifetime.
