Mission Statement

The mission of Niangua R-V School District is that it will provide students an academically challenging, safe, and supportive environment.

Community Attributes

The Niangua R-V School District is located in Niangua, Missouri. Niangua is a small rural farming community situated off of Interstate 44 in Webster County and 30 minutes east of Springfield, Missouri. Our location allows us to offer the best of both worlds; the small community feel and only minutes from great shopping, high quality medical care and everything a large metropolitan area has to offer. Close proximity to Springfield also allows great opportunities for attending Missouri State University, Drury University or Ozarks Technical Community College. Niangua is also within easy driving distance to Branson and Lake of the Ozarks.

District Highlights

The district is comprised of one campus location consisting of a new Kindergarten Readiness building; K-5 elementary building; 6-8 middle school building; 9-12 high school building; and Vo-Ag building. The district maintains a solid financial position and has no debt.

The district is a member of the Mark Twain Conference and offers softball, basketball, cross country, cheerleading and academic bowls.

We at Niangua R-V Schools believe all children can succeed. Therefore, we believe the role of education is to provide every student the ability to realize their own potential by providing the skills, tools and opportunities necessary to do so. It is, therefore, the responsibility of the Niangua R-V School District to provide all students in the district a safe environment to share their dreams of what tomorrow will bring, to teach them the skills, provide them with the tools, and allow them the opportunities to reach those dreams.
