COUNSELORS: All personnel hired for the job description of professional school counselor in the Grain Valley R-5 School District, will be placed on the appropriate certified salary scale according to the number of years accepted toward their educational experience and the years of college education attained within the counseling field or comparable fields of study. Due to the extended number of graduate credit hours required in the counseling Masters program and the high need for qualified professional counselors, the MS column will be considered attained upon completion of 32 graduate credit hours within the guidance and counseling program. Hours accumulated beyond the MS (32 hr) column will move counselors across the salary scale accordingly until they become fully certified as a counselor in the State of Missouri. Upon full Missouri Certification, the counselor will then be moved to the MS+40/SPEC column. Counselors who further pursue and attain their LPC, Licensed Professional Counselor, will be eligible for a $3000 stipend each contract year they maintain their license.
