People move here to live and raise children in a safe, small-town atmosphere with many local conveniences and easy access to St. Louis County. People remain for the strong sense of community and tradition.

Further enhancing the hometown atmosphere is the involvement of churches, Boy and Girl Scout troops and many service organizations including Kiwanis, Rotary, Optimists and the Lions Club. Three local newspapers and a radio station keep residents informed of what is happening in the area. The business community supports our local schools.
